

CURRICULUM VITAE DR. JOSÉ R. CABO-SOLER

Graduated in Medicine and Surgery at the University of Valencia, Spain, in 1969. Ph D. Thesis in Biochemistry at the University of Bologna, Italy, in 1971 and in Medicine at the University of Valencia, Spain (1971).

Post-Doctoral studies at the Department of Internal Medicine of Menorah Medical Center in Kansas City, Missouri (1971-72) and at the Endocrinology Unit of the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology of Washington University School of Medicine in Saint Louis, Missouri, USA (1972-1973), Associate Profesor of Biochemistry at the Medical Schools of the University of Salamanca (1973-75) and the University of Santander, Spain (1975-76) and at the Pharmacy School of the University of Valencia (1976-81). Full Profesor of Biochemistry and Molecular Biology at the Pharmacy School of the University of Valencia (1981-87) and at the Medical School of the same University since 1987 till 2009, when I went into retirement.

I belong to different Scientific Societies in the fields of Nutrition, Biochemistry and Molecular Biology, Physiology, Endocrinology, Healthy Aging, Aesthetic Medicine and Medicine and have served as a member of the Board of Direction of several of them. I have been President of the Spanish Society of Aesthetic Medicine –SEME- for almost 10 years (1997-2007). I am a member of the Scientific Council of the Spanish Danone Institute, since its foundation in 1993. I belong as Corresponding Member to the Royal Academy of Medicine of the Valencian Community.

I have participated and organized many Courses, Seminars and Congresses on Nutrition, Obesity, Healthy Aging and Aesthetic Medicine. I am the Medical Director of the Master in Aesthetic Medicine of the University of the Balearic Islands, Spain, since 1997 (13 editions till now).

Areas of interest::

- Metabolic aspects of Obesity.
- Hormones and Aging.
- Nutrition.