

Dr. Patrick Treacy MICGP, MBCAM, H. Dip Dermatology DRCOG, DCH, LRCSI DTM MB BCh FRSM

FRSA

Chairman of the Irish Association of Cosmetic Doctors and Irish Rep. of the British Association of Cosmetic Medicine. He is recognized as one of the most influential aesthetic practitioners in the world being recently named amongst the MyFaceMyBody 'Ultimate 100 Global Aesthetic Leaders' (Los Angeles 2017) and given the Laureate of professional award in Aesthetic Medicine with the Beauty & Anti-Ageing Trophy (Baku 2017) for his contributions to the field of Aesthetic Medicine. He also received the MyFaceMyBody Specialist Award (London 2018) for his continued contributions to the field of Aesthetic Medicine. His research has strongly influenced this specialist area where he has developed global protocols relating to dermal filler complications and wound healing, as well as pioneering techniques for HIV facial lipodystrophy facial endoprosthesis and radiosurgery venous thermocoagulation. He won both the 'Irish Healthcare Award for Medical Research' (Dublin 2017) and the British College of Aesthetic Medicine Award for Medical Research' (London 2017). He is among few doctors in the world to have won the coveted AMEC Trophy twice (Paris 2014 and 2016) for research relating to cancer cachexia and reversing skin necrosis. He won the MyFaceMyBody Trophy in (London 2016) for medical research and was Highly Commended (London 2012 and 2013) for studies relating to the use of platelet rich plasma, growth signaling factors and 633nm red light in both facial rejuvenation and hair transplant. These types of procedure are now popularized and being used by clinicians all around the world. He was given the CCME Medal for 'Excellence in contributions to Aesthetic Medicine' (Mexico 2016) and got Highly Commended in 'Doctor of the Year' (London 2016).

Dr. Patrick Treacy is Chairman of the Irish Association of Cosmetic Doctors and Irish Representative of the British Association of Cosmetic Medicine. He serves on the editorial boards of four international aesthetic journals. He is author, or co-author of many articles in peer-reviewed scientific journals and has contributed to chapters of medical books. He has been keynote speaker across Europe, Russia, the United States, and South America as Faculty 2016-2017.

Dr Treacy is a fellow of the Royal Society of Medicine and the Royal Society of Arts. (London). He is Chairman of the Ailesbury Humanitarian Foundation and Honorary Ambassador to the Michael Jackson Legacy Foundation. He is the driving force behind countless humanitarian efforts that impacts the lives of children in communities across Africa, Haiti and the Third World. To this end he has opened orphanages in Monrovia, Liberia and Mireblais, Haiti in the last year alone. He is European Medical Advisor to Network Lipolysis and the UK's largest cosmetic website Consulting Rooms. He practices cosmetic medicine in his clinics in Dublin, Cork, London and the Middle East. He is an advanced aesthetic trainer and has trained over 800 doctors and nurses from around the world. He has featured on the Today Show, Ireland AM, CNN, Dr. Drew, RTE, TV3, Sky News, BBC and Newsweek.

Medical Awards and Accolades 2016-2017

- Winner 'Best Cosmetic Surgery Clinic in Ireland 2016' Irish Health Awards (Dublin 2016)
- Winner 'Doctor of Year 2016' (Highly Commended) (London 2016)
- Winner 'Best Global Clinical Research Case in Aesthetic Medicine' AMEC (Paris 2016)
- Winner 'Best Innovative Research Award' MyFaceMyBody Awards (London 2016)
- Winner CMME Medal for Medical Excellence (Mexico 2016)
- Winner EADV Lecture Award (London 2017)
- Winner Irish Healthcare Awards 'Best Medical Research -Ireland' (Dublin 2017)
- Winner AMEC 'Best Laser Surgery Case' Aesthetic World Congress (Monaco 2017)
- Winner AIDA Trophy 'Best Clinical Case' Aesthetic & Irish Health Awards (Abu Dhabi 2017)
- Winner AAAMC 'Art and Beauty Trophy' in DermatoCosmetology (Baku 2017)